

Bio - Andy Eklov

Andy Eklov was born in Sweden, land of hydro-electric power and environmental consciousness. He has lived in California since 1966, where he later started a company providing information technology for auto dealerships, among other business ventures.

In 1998 he acquired the company that was to become Ebus, Inc. in Downey, California.

He is married with two children and resides in Manhattan Beach, CA.